There is a silver lining amidst the dark clouds: conscientious journalists who make up the Fourth Estate. They are our bulwark against encroaching falsehood, the bastion of truth for whom accuracy and objectivity are not mere mantras to be chanted. Every news idea is grounded in extensive research, every lead verified through rigorous interviews and every morsel of information scrupulously corroborated to distil partiality from facts.

From Passage 1,

1. In the opening sentence, what contrast does the author make between the perceptions of nostalgia?

In addition, sociologists opine that nostalgia could strengthen national identity and bonds among people. Afterall, nostalgia is about collective identity, sense of belonging, and anticipation for the future. This can herald the renaissance of civil society, involving both looking back to a nation's accomplishments of the past, and 30
